1. SCOPE

This standard provides a specification for compliance with licensing by the Private Security Authority and applies to contractors seeking licences to provide security services in the sectors for which this standard has been prescribed.

The Government of Ireland through the Private Security Services Act, 2004, established the Private Security Authority (PSA) as the national regulatory and licensing body for the private security industry. Amongst the functions of the PSA are:

- The controlling and supervising of persons providing security services and maintaining and improving standards in the provision of those services.
- Specifying standards to be observed in the provision of security services.
- Specifying qualifications or requirements for the granting of licences.

Contractors licensed by the Private Security Authority and those seeking a licence from the PSA must comply with this standard.

Contractors Include:

- Any organisation providing the prescribed security service.
- Any organisation advertising a prescribed security service, irrespective of whether they provide the service themselves or use another organisation to provide the service.
- Any organisation purporting to provide the prescribed security service or purporting to be a contractor licensed to provide the service.

Only auditing bodies approved by the PSA may provide auditing services for licensing purposes. Contractors should check the PSA website, www.psa.gov.ie, for a list of approved auditing bodies.

By applying for and holding a licence, contractors agree to the sharing of information relating to this document, the contents herein and any audit (including audit reports) undertaken for the purposes of PSA licensing between the PSA and the contractor's auditing body. Where a contractor fails to comply with the requirements of this standard, the auditing body is obliged to notify the PSA.

Only the most recent edition of the Requirements Document specified by the PSA shall apply for licensing purposes. To ascertain the edition applicable visit the PSA website, www.psa.gov.ie.

- Building Regulations.
- Data Protection.

Relevant verification shall be available to all statutory bodies and their agents, including but not limited to:

- The Private Security Authority.
- Auditing bodies approved by the Private Security Authority.

3.7.2 The organisation shall appoint a member of the management team responsible for ensuring that the organisation operates in accordance with the provisions of the Private Security Services Act, regulations thereunder and the standards prescribed for licensing.

4. STAFFING

4.1 Selection and Pre-Employment Screening

4.1.1 General

- 4.1.1.1 The organisation shall carry out detailed pre-employment enquiries to ensure that all personnel are competent and of good character.
- 4.1.1.2 All persons offered employment by the organisation for posts involving services subject to licensing by the PSA or posts involving access to details of clients shall be screened.
- 4.1.1.3 A personnel file shall be established for each person subject to screening.
- 4.1.1.4 All applicants for relevant employment shall be required to provide the following:
 - a) An acknowledgement, signed and dated by the applicant, that misrepresentation, or failure to disclose material facts may constitute grounds for dismissal.
 - b) A signed statement authorising an approach to former employers, State institutions, personal referees, etc., for verification of their career and employment record (see Annex A, Form 1 for a suggested format).
- 4.1.1.5 Probationary employment should be for a period of six months and in no case shall exceed a period of nine months.
- 4.1.1.6 Certified copies of all relevant personnel and screening documentation shall be held on file.
- 4.1.1.7 The requirements in Section 4.1 shall be applied equally to full-time and to part-time employees and at all levels of seniority, including directors.
- 4.1.1.8 The relevant provisions of these requirements shall apply to all ancillary staff including those employed on a temporary basis.
- 4.1.1.9 The screening period shall not be less than five years or from school leaving, whichever is the shorter duration.
- 4.1.1.10 The employee shall be classed as 'employed subject to satisfactory screening' whilst screening is continuing and shall be subject to a strict system of monitoring and supervision during this period.
- 4.1.1.11 Screening covering the whole of the screening period shall be completed no later than ten weeks after employment has commenced.

4.1.1.12 Full screening for the period covered under 4.1.1.9 above shall apply. Screening for a shorter period can be carried out where:

- a) an employee or director holds a current PSA licence, and
- b) has, immediately prior to the commencement of this employment, been employed by another licensed security provider, and
- c) the previous employer referred to in b) has carried out the full screening requirements within the preceding five years.

Where a), b) and c) above apply, screening shall be carried out from the date the screening by the previous employer had been conducted until the commencement of this employment.

4.1.1.13 Where the provisions of 4.1.1.12 apply, the previous licensed employer shall, upon receipt of a written request by an immediately subsequent employer covered by this standard, forward those parts of the employee's personnel file relating to details of screening and training undertaken by the previous employer. Any requested details in relation to other parts of the personnel file held by the previous employer shall be released only where the employee gives permission in writing to the previous employer to release such details.

4.1.2 Pre Employment Interview

4.1.2.1 Prior to the interview the applicant shall submit a curriculum vitae or other documentation containing:

- a) A list of the applicant's previous employers along with dates worked for each employer.
- b) Contact details for previous employers listed.
- c) Details of relevant training, qualifications and experience together with supporting documentation.
- d) Periods of unemployment.
- e) Applicant's current place of residence.

4.1.2.2 A personal interview of a duration sufficient to assess the following shall be conducted by the organisation:

- a) The general ability, both physical and intellectual of the applicant and the overall demeanour of the applicant.
- b) Verification of personal documents e.g. birth certificate, driving licence, passport, service records, current security licence, work visa etc.
- c) The applicant's previous employment history and experience, including reason(s) for leaving previous employments.
- d) Verification of qualifications/training.
- e) The level of occupational fluency in respect of reading, writing and oral communication in the English language.
- f) The applicant's experience, if any, in the security industry.

4.1.2.3 Interview notes evidencing that the requirements set out in 4.1.2.2 above have been addressed shall be taken by the organisation and retained on the personnel file of the applicant.

4.1.3 Character and Other References

- 4.1.3.1 Screening procedures shall include direct reference to former employers, educational authorities, etc., with confirmation by them, in writing, of periods of employment contributing to a continuous record of the career or history of the person being screened for the whole of the screening period, on a month-to-month basis. The direct reference shall include at least one attempt, in writing, by the organisation to obtain the continuous record referred to in this requirement.
- 4.1.3.2 Where initial references are taken by telephone the following procedures shall be used:
- a) The telephone number of the person called shall be confirmed independently.
 - b) Information given on the telephone by a referee shall be noted at the time of making the telephone call and shall be signed and dated by the member of staff making the telephone call and retained on the individuals screening file (see Annex A, Form 2 for a suggested format).
 - c) A written request shall be forwarded to the referee within two working days of the telephone call being made seeking written confirmation of the information provided (see Annex A, Form 3 for a suggested format).
 - d) The screening process shall not be regarded as complete until written evidence is obtained.
 - e) The progress sheet shall be used to monitor and record the action taken (see Annex A, Form 4 for a suggested format).
- 4.1.3.3 Only documents from third parties such as employers, colleges, Department of Social Protection, solicitors, accountants are acceptable for screening purposes.

Note. For the purposes of this document CVs or other personal documents are not acceptable as evidence of screening.

- 4.1.3.4 Where records are not available, the period for which the record is not available shall be treated as a gap.
- 4.1.3.5 Where there are gaps in the career record which cannot be independently confirmed in accordance with the written verification procedures, the following procedure shall be followed:
- a) Written statements from personal referees shall be used, provided they had personal knowledge of the person being screened on a month-to-month basis during the period covered.
 - b) The organisation shall be satisfied as to the creditability of the personal referee.
 - c) The written statement shall as a minimum confirm that the applicant was where he/she purported to be and may, subject to the credibility of the referee, include a character reference.
 - d) A progress sheet shall be used to monitor and record the action taken.

Note. For the purposes of this document personal referees shall not include family members, work colleagues or friends.

4.1.4 Evidence of Qualifications/Awards

- 4.1.4.1 Prior to commencement of employment the organisation shall ensure that the applicant has any qualifications or awards necessary for the duties to which the applicant will be employed.

4.1.5 Work Permits, Authorisations and Permissions

- 4.1.5.1 The organisation shall ensure that all necessary documentation for work visa applications and permissions/authority to work is fully completed before the individual is employed. This applies to renewal of such applications also.
- 4.1.5.2 The organisation shall maintain a register of all employees who have applied for and obtained permission or authorisation from the State to work in Ireland. The organisation shall review the validity of these permissions or authorisations at least every 6 months and shall keep a documented record of such reviews.
- 4.1.5.3 The organisation shall ensure that the register at 4.1.5.2 is held on site at the address recorded on the Private Security Services Licence.

4.1.6 Maintenance and Retention of Records

- 4.1.6.1 The basic details of the employee, covering verifiable history within the industry, dates employed, positions held, disciplinary offences and a comment on suitability for employment in the security industry shall be retained for not less than five years from the date the employment ceases. This information shall be verifiable in the form of readily retrievable records held at the organisations premises.
- 4.1.6.2 All records covered by 4.1.6.1 above shall be kept safe and secure against unauthorised access to, or alteration, disclosure or destruction of the data and against their accidental loss or destruction. Employers shall ensure that the records are retained for no longer than is necessary and in accordance with the recommendations of the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner.
- 4.1.6.3 A list of all personnel currently employed both on a permanent and a probationary basis shall be maintained. In the case of those employed on a probationary basis, the dates on which probationary employment commenced and is to cease for each individual shall be recorded.

4.1.7 Screening and Acquired Companies

- 4.1.7.1 Where it cannot be established by the records of an acquired organisation that screening to the required standard has already occurred, then this shall take place within a period not exceeding thirteen weeks from the date of acquisition.

4.2 Terms of Employment

4.2.1 All employees shall receive a clear, concise and unambiguous contract of employment and a staff handbook.

4.2.2 In addition to any mandatory requirements, terms of employment shall include the following information:

- a) Job title.
- b) Effective start date.
- c) Probationary period.
- d) Pay and Allowances.
- e) Hours of work, days of work, shift frequency and shift variables.
- f) Holiday entitlement.
- g) Sick pay (conditions of payment) and pension entitlement.
- h) Industrial injury procedure.
- i) Location of place of work (employer's address).
- j) Equipment to be supplied.
- k) Disciplinary and grievance procedures.
- l) Terms of notice and termination.
- m) Copies of any Collective Agreement covering the employment.
- n) Appeals procedure
- o) The Organisation's Health and Safety Statement.
- p) The Organisation's Equality policy

4.3 Code of Conduct

4.3.1 All employees shall be instructed that under the terms and conditions of employment they shall:

- a) Complete the required tasks promptly and diligently, unless there is due and sufficient cause not to.
- b) Ensure that all oral or written statements made by them, of whatever description, are true and accurate.
- c) Maintain carefully all documents and ensure that any alterations, disposal, or erasure of documents are carried out only with proper authorisation.
- d) Maintain confidentiality on any matter relating to the employer or his clients either past or present.
- e) Ensure that any actions taken by them are such as not to bring discredit on the employer, the client or fellow employees.
- f) Immediately notify any conviction for a relevant criminal or motoring offence to the employer.
- g) Not allow unauthorised access to a clients premises.
- h) Ensure that they use employer's equipment or facilities only with authorisation.
- i) Continuously satisfy the requirements of PSA licensing.
- j) Wear a correct identity badge or licence card, as prescribed by the PSA, at all times whilst on duty.

4.3.2 The code of conduct shall be signed by all employees.

4.3.3 Employers shall treat employees with courtesy and respect.

4.4 Identification

- 4.4.1 The organisation shall ensure that all employees have an identity badge either in the form of an organisation issued badge, satisfying criteria prescribed by the PSA or alternatively the PSA issued licence card.
- 4.4.2 All employees shall be instructed on PSA requirements for wearing an identity badge.
- 4.4.3 Where the organisation provides its own identity badge, it shall ensure its periodic review. The duration between periodic reviews cannot exceed 24 months.
- 4.4.4 There shall be in place formal arrangements for the withdrawal of organisation issued identity badges from an employee on request.

5. TRAINING

5.1 Training Policy and Responsibility

- 5.1.1 The organisation shall have a clearly defined, documented training policy, authorised at senior management level within the organisation. The policy shall cover theoretical and practical skills and meet any training requirements laid down by the Private Security Authority.
- 5.1.2 The organisation shall appoint a member of the management team as training administrator.
- 5.1.3 The training policy shall include a commitment to assess the effectiveness of all operational staff and to provide additional training where required.

5.2 Induction Training

- 5.2.1 Training shall include a detailed organisation-specific, induction session covering organisation structure, ethos, policies and employee roles and responsibilities for all newly recruited employees. This element of training shall be delivered before the employee commences operational duties. Each employee shall acknowledge receipt of this training and associated documentation by signing a declaration. Such training shall be delivered by a competent member of staff and shall be recorded and this record shall be retained.

5.3 Specialist Training

- 5.3.1 Employers shall ensure that employees required to carry out duties or use equipment of a specialist nature are certified as having received the appropriate training in the subject matter.
- 5.3.2 Where risks are identified, in the course of carrying out a risk assessment, additional training, specific to these risks, shall be provided where training has not previously addressed the nature of the risk(s) involved.

5.4 Refresher Training

- 5.4.1 Procedures shall exist to assess the effectiveness of all employees, and where required refresher training shall be carried out.

5.5 Supervisory and Management Training

- 5.5.1 Subject to PSA requirements and any associated guidelines, the organisation shall ensure that all operational supervisory and management staff receive documented training in consideration of their position and responsibilities.

5.6 Training Records

- 5.6.1 The training administrator shall ensure that proper training records are maintained.
- 5.6.2 Individual training records relating to training provided by the organisation shall indicate the date, training organisation, details of certification and subject(s) covered. These training records shall be signed by the employee and countersigned by the training administrator and retained as part of the employee's record.
- 5.6.3 Verification of all training shall be available for inspection at the address recorded on the Private Security Services Licence.
- 5.6.4 All refresher training undertaken by employees shall be recorded and the record held and retained on the employee's personnel file by the employer.
- 5.6.5 Records shall indicate where further training is required.

6. OPERATIONS

6.1 Security

- 6.1.1 Procedures shall be established for all staff to ensure the security of information and property to which they have access during the course of their employment.
- 6.1.2 Organisations shall have a policy in place to ensure compliance with the Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018 with regard to data collection and retention, and have systems in place to restrict access to the personal data where necessary. Data protection policies should address all of the following issues:
- The basis for organisations holding personal data.
 - The adequacy and relevance of data held.
 - The purpose of retaining data.
 - Security measures for the protection of data.
 - Data retention.
 - Maintaining the accuracy of data.
 - Restriction of access to the data.
 - Data disposal procedure.
 - Data breach reporting procedure.
- 6.1.3 Organisations shall keep confidential any knowledge of their clients' business or operations acquired through the provision of services. In particular, structures and procedures shall be put in place and implemented to ensure that any details relating to the client's security equipment, procedures and practices must be subject to the appropriate level of access within the organisation's company or business.

- 6.1.4 Any details relating to the client's business, premises, residence, assets, procedures or any other aspect of knowledge of the client gained by the organisation and employees, the disclosure of which can be reasonably construed as compromising the business or security of the client, shall not be disclosed or made known in any way to a third party or third parties, except with the express written permission of the client. Where written permission is granted, the organisation shall retain this on file and shall produce this if requested by an appropriate authority.
- 6.1.5 It shall be a condition of any contract that requires the organisation to hold keys/codes that such keys/codes shall only be surrendered to an authorised representative of the client upon receipt of a written request. Where the client does not give written authorisation the organisation shall not surrender the keys referred to above. The organisation shall comply with any PSA licensing requirement for key holding.
- 6.1.6 Organisations shall have procedures in place to ensure the security of information held in an electronic format. Appropriate security measures such as passwords and encryption shall be in place and back up records held securely. Confidential records held in an electronic format shall be backed up at least once a week. Back up records shall be held securely and in such a manner that a threat to the integrity of one set of records will not pose a threat to the other set.
- 6.1.7 It shall be a condition of any contract that requires the organisation to have access to the client's terminals or servers either on-site or off-site, that the organisation take appropriate security measures to prevent unauthorised or unlawful access to the terminals and/or servers.
- 6.1.8 A record of visits to all client premises shall be kept for a minimum of three years and shall include details of the service provided and the name and PSA licence number or works number of the person(s) who provided the service. Upon expiration of the required retention period the organisation shall dispose of the relevant records in a secure and confidential manner.

Note: National legislative requirements may entail retention of records for longer periods of time.

6.2 Vehicles and Equipment

- 6.2.1 All liveried vehicles shall clearly display the organisation's name, badge or logo and telephone number(s).
- 6.2.2 Employers shall ensure that driving licences of staff involved in driving operational vehicles are valid for the duration of each such employee's period of employment. Driving licences shall be inspected annually and a record of this kept on file.
- 6.2.3 All vehicles and equipment used in connection with the provision of services shall be in working order and be regularly maintained.
- 6.2.4 All employees shall sign for all equipment issued and give an undertaking to return any equipment issued immediately on request.

7. COMPLIANCE WITH PSA LICENSING

7.1 Compliance With Standards

- 7.1.1 Organisations shall maintain compliance with this standard during the term of the licence. Failure to maintain compliance may result in the PSA taking action against the licensee up to and including the revocation of the licence.
- 7.1.2 Organisations shall be subject to an audit by an approved auditing body at least once during each calendar year or at such intervals as the PSA may prescribe. The purpose of the audit is to verify compliance with the specified standards.
- 7.1.3 An audit report shall be completed by the approved auditing body for each audit undertaken and the organisation shall agree to the auditing body providing a copy of the report to the PSA.
- 7.1.4 Organisations shall give their permission to the approved auditing body to provide the PSA with information in accordance with provisions 7.1.5 and 7.1.6
- 7.1.5 Where an organisation fails to undertake or complete an audit the auditing body shall notify the PSA of the failure and the reason for same.
- 7.1.6 Where an organisation is found to be non-compliant with a standard the auditing body shall notify the PSA of the reason for the non-compliance and any resulting action taken against the organisation.

7.2 PSA Licensing Requirements

- 7.2.1 The organisation shall ensure that an inspector appointed by the PSA may at any time enter any place where a security service is being provided and provide any information requested by an inspector in the course of any inspection or investigation.
- 7.2.2 Organisations shall be familiar with all legislation relevant to the provision of their business.
- 7.2.3 During the term of the licence organisations shall comply with all relevant and current legislation and specifically the following:
- a) The Private Services Acts and Regulations.
 - b) Organisation of Working Time Acts.
 - c) Taxation and Social Welfare Acts.
 - d) Payment of Wages Acts.
 - e) Immigration Acts.
 - f) Health and Safety at Work Regulations.
 - g) European Product Legislation.
 - h) Building Regulations.
 - i) Companies Act 2014 (where appropriate).
 - j) Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018.

7.2.4 The organisation shall within 7 days notify the PSA in writing if any of the following occur:

- a) Change of name of the licence holder.
- b) In the case of a body corporate, change in company directors.
- c) In the case of a partnership, change in partners.
- d) Change of ownership of the company. In the case of a body corporate this includes a change in any shareholding above 5%.
- e) Change of address from which the security service is being provided.
- f) Change of registered address if this is different from address at e) above.
- g) Change in the legal status of the licence holder.
- h) Any conviction against the licence holder whether in relation to the business of the licence holder or other matter. In the case of a body corporate this includes any convictions against a company director. In the case of a partnership this includes any conviction against a partner.
